For further information please refer to Holmen's press release.

- Hunting arranged by Holmen on lands in the Norrköping area is a decades-long tradition and provides an opportunity to meet with Holmen's employees as well as with external participants, says Fredrik Lundberg. Of course, I respect the work of the prosecutors and assist them with the information they wish to have. I am convinced that both Holmen and I have managed everything correctly and that no violations have occurred.
